Child-Care Subsidy

Summary

The Utah Department of Workforce Services offers a subsidy to help pay for childcare costs.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Eligible children must be under the age of 13 and/or a special-needs child under the age of 18.
- Children must be U.S. citizens or qualified aliens. Parents do not need to provide any information regarding immigration status, work authorization, or social security numbers.
- Single parents must work an average of at least 15 hours per week and make at least minimum wage. For 2-parent households, the second parent must work an average of at least 30 hours a week.
- Must use a licensed childcare provider, or Family/Friend/Neighbor or license-exempt provider that is approved by DWS.
- Must meet the following Income Limits (85% of the State Median Income):

Household Size	Monthly Income Limit	Annual Income Limit
2	$4,511	$54,132
3	$5,574	$66,888
4	$6,635	$79,620
5	$7,697	$92,364

- The amount of potential payments (paid directly to providers) depends upon the age of the child and the type of provider. For example, maximum monthly child-care payments to center-based, licensed providers for full-time care are as follows:

0-24 Months	2 Years	3 Years	4 years Old	5 Years Old	6-<13 Years Old
$1040	$819	$756	$752	$729	$620
